SUGGESTIONS FOR THE INTRODUCTION

1. Use the script -- it's brief and designed to be read by anyone, regardless of their comfort in public speaking.
2. Be enthusiastic -- avoid giving the impression that you're not sure if I'm going to be funny. This is not vanity on my part. I just want to be sure you get the best show possible for the money.
3. Save the name for last. Ending with my name gives the audience a clear cue for when they should applaud.
4. Relax -- it will all be over in just a few seconds, and then you can enjoy the show!

Thanks for your help Not everyone is comfortable with public speaking (if they were, I'd be out of a job), so I am very grateful to you for your help.
